

Albert Government Receives Offer of Natural Resources

Premier Greenfield has received, along with the Premiers of Manitoba and Saskatchewan, a definite offer from Premier McKenzie King, of the dominion government with respect to the transference of the natural resources from control of the dominion government to the three provincial governments mentioned.

Premier Greenfield informed the legislature on Tuesday that this offer had been received and was now being considered by the provincial government. In brief, the offer of Premier King is that the governments of the three prairie provinces relinquish the subsidies now being received in lieu of the lands of the provinces in control of the dominion and in return receive these lands and resources. In this way, all transactions of the past would be ignored. Premier King states, however, that should the provinces wish an accounting of past transactions, he would not object to such an accounting by an independent tribunal. Premier Greenfield has not yet intimated what the Alberta government's attitude toward the offer will be. He promised to keep the legislature fully informed as to the progress of negotiations.

Public accounts for the past year tabled by Premier Greenfield in the house, show a deficit on operation of $2,118,209.66, the total expenditure from general revenue account having been $10,605,155.91 while the total revenue received was $8,486,946.25. There is $5,140,000 in outstanding accounts still to be collected from various sources.

In committee of the whole, changes were made in the act to regulate produce commission merchants, to provide that retail merchants handling farm produce as part of their business would not come under the scope of the act. The bond minimum under the act for commission merchants was reduced from $2000 to $1000.

Demonstration farms established by the Alberta government have cost a grand total of $1,175,742.33 for capital and maintenance since the policy was entered into, according to a statement made by Hon. Geo. Hoadley in the legislature on Tuesday in answer to a question put by N. S. Smith, member for Olds.

Capt. Page Found Badly Wounded in Calgary

Capt. L. Page, who lives east of town, was found badly wounded in the head in the Cameron Block, Calgary, on Tuesday morning. He was taken to the Calgary hospital and his injuries attended to by Dr. Costello. Late reports stated that he was resting easily and that his condition was satisfactory. When found he was unconscious from loss of blood from a bad wound in the head, an artery being cut. An investigation is being held by the Calgary police.

March is very lamblike in this district so far but of course there's lots of snow for the lion to appear before the month is out. According to reports and what we have seen the whole province of Alberta has had a generous snowfall this winter, consequently there will be lots of moisture to start with.

U. S. Not Ready to Talk Reciprocity With Canada

Hon. W. F. Fielding, minister of finance in the Dominion government was a visitor to New York and Washington last week. The purpose of the trip was to make some governmental financial arrangements in New York and his visit to Washington was for the purpose of taking up better trade relations along reciprocal lines. The agricultural bloc told Mr. Fielding quite definitely that they will fight reciprocity. He states that "From these facts it is clear that at present nothing can be done in the way of negotiations with the American authorities. We must wait the final action of congress on the Fordney Tariff bill. The thought that if they want to sell they must at the same time be willing to buy, seems to be growing among the American people. They are not likely to overlook this fact in its relation to Canada at a time when, more than ever before, they are seeking new markets".

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8th.

A great deal of discussion has been caused throughout the district over the High School situation and some of the rural residents are strenuously objecting to any change in school conditions. They have a perfect right to discuss this matter but it seems to us that they have lost their equilibrium in getting so excited. In the first place it will be some time before any steps are taken by the government in taking action on the matter and also because when such action is taken there is absolutely no doubt but what the government will give these people every chance to express their approval or disapproval by a vote before any High School scheme is put into force in any district.

The viewpoint of some of the rural objectors to any change in school matters is rather a peculiar one. According to some of them the town ratepayer should shoulder every burden in regard to High School taxation when only a small percentage of the pupils attending High School come from the town, most of them coming from the country. In regard to the taxation in town school districts the farmer has been protected for some years by a clause in the school act limiting their taxation for school purposes to 8 mills while the town taxpayer, no matter how much the school accommodation has had to be increased, has had to bear the increased running expenses as the schools grew. As far as building the schools were concerned, no matter what the conditions are today, they were built with a good intention to provide as good accommodation as could be given for the purpose of providing education for the farmer's children as for the town children, and the ratepayers of the town willingly paid their big burden as long as they could without any objection. Consequently unless everybody can get together and work this difficulty out satisfactorily some people in town have got to sacrifice their little homes because they cannot any longer bear this burden, which would be unjust.

As for the grants to schools these are paid out of supplementary revenue taxes by everyone, town ratepayers as well as rural, so that while the government seems to be helping out the High Schools really amounts to the same thing, we are only getting back a small part of the revenue collected for school purposes. If some scheme can be worked out whereby the High School can be carried on with only a very slight increase of taxation on the rural section the advantage to the children will be incalculable as well as saving the rural taxpayer a much larger expense by compelling him to send his children further away to get this secondary education which he will have to do if the town is forced to close down the High School.

NON-BACON TYPES UN-PROFITABLE

Each week brings proof that the warning issued recently about an undue increase in non-bacon type hogs on some markets was well founded. Undoubtedly there is a revival of interest in hog raising among farmers from end to end of the Dominion. Unfortunately there is not the same evidence that adequate attention is given to the needs of those who in the end have to buy these hogs from the farmer. Yet already breeders of some of the unsuitable sorts are feeling the pinch.

The following comparison of the numbers of hogs received on public markets in the Prairie Provinces for the first four weeks of January, 1921 and 1922, shows that production is moving upward:—

	1921	1922
Winnipeg	14,807	16,286
Calgary	3,854	9,899
Edmonton	2,869	5,085

It will be noticed that by far the largest increase is recorded at Calgary. But the head buyer of one of the leading meat packing firms writes in reference to this particular market:—

"It is unfortunate that the quality of hogs being marketed at Calgary is not the suitable bacon type but shows a heavy percentage of Duroc strain. We have found it practically impossible to get our type of hogs on the Calgary market. As an instance of how the lack of competition, due to the inferior quality that prevails, affects the price we find the Calgary market for February 2 showing a top price of $10.25 per cwt. fed and watered, whereas the top price at Edmonton market for the same date was $11 fed and watered.

J. D. Smith, Superintendent of the Seed and Weed branch reports on the difficulty in enforcing the Weed Act when farmers have been financially unable to spend much on destruction of weeds. He states that one of the alarming features of the difficulty in controlling weeds is the utter indifference of municipalities in regard to their responsibilities in the matter.

DEATH OF WESLEY SWALM

Rev. Wesley Swalm, pastor of the Nazarene church in Red Deer, died in that city Tuesday morning, February 21st. Funeral services were held there Thursday morning, February 23rd after which the body was forwarded to Didsbury his former and boyhood home. Appropriate services were also held here in the Mennonite church, with Rev. James H. Bury, Dist. Supt. of Nazarene church, assisted by local ministers of both denominations, officiating. W. S. Durrer had charge of the interment of the body in Didsbury cemetery.

Mr. Swalm was born at Collingwood, Ontario in the year of 1890, coming to Didsbury with his parents in 1899. He graduated from Didsbury High school then attended Normal at Calgary, after which he engaged in teaching the following public schools: Berlin, Clover Mount and Gore. He then went to Pasadena California, to attend the Nazarene College (now Pasadena University.) After his graduation he taught in the college until his departure for Berkeley (University of California) where he taught and prepared himself for his Masters degree. Leaving that institution in 1917 he came to Nampa, Idaho where he served as a teacher for three years in Northwest Nazarene College, at the close of which he suffered a general breakdown in health, forcing upon him a rest which he greatly deserved, whereupon he came to Didsbury to recuperate and build up his strength. In July, 21 he accepted a call to the pastorate of the Red Deer Nazarene church, this proved to be the last of his labours on this earth though he being dead, yet speaketh, and his work's do follow him.

Rev. Swalm was married to Miss Mabel Beist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Beist of local residence, in 1915. To this union were born two children, Paul and Alice who with their mother comprise the immediate family left to mourn the sad loss of a loving husband and a kind father. In addition to these, are his father, Conrad C., his brother Noah, his sisters Frances and Nellie Swalm, all of Didsbury, and a sister Mrs. Anna May Hall of Calgary, who will miss the beloved son and brother gone from them.

In the death of Mr. Swalm, Didsbury has lost one of her brightest and most respected young men, the church has lost one of her most useful workers. His life's example and service will always be a blessed and sacred memory. Citizens of Didsbury, friends and neighbors all join in loving sympathy to those bereft, in this their hour of sorrow.
